

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

British Steel is committed to achieving the highest industry standards of health and safety.

We firmly believe that zero harm is achievable, and we will work vigorously and without compromise to reach this goal.

Our board members are accountable for performance delivered through exemplary leadership standards and behaviours.

We are committed to:

Working safely is a condition of employment for all employees and contractors

A commitment to work safely can only be demonstrated by our actions ... or inactions

Ensuring all employees and contractors are responsible for their own health and safety. Management however are accountable

Management has the responsibility to demonstrate appropriate leadership standards and behaviours.

Ensuring Zero Harm to our employees and contractors

Preventing all injuries, and work-related illness

Ensuring all employees are engaged and competent through provision of suitable information, instruction and training

All employees should receive suitable training on the hazards they face and the safe systems of work to control risk.

Achieving excellence in health and safety protection which will drive successful business results

Without a healthy, and safe focused operation there can be no sustainable business.

Integrating health and safety management into all our business systems and processes, and continually improving them to further enhance our performance
